Dear Ms. Chliviny:

I have enclosed copies of the relevant correspondence concerning Mr. Rockefeller's developing relationship with Mr. Drohan of Foremost-McKesson, Inc., that we discussed earlier today. Mr. Drohan has become very much interested in The Rockefeller University and we are now completing final arrangements for the luncheon that he is co-hosting with Mr. Rockefeller on November 1 in San Francisco.

When I spoke with Mr. Drohan last Thursday, he apparently had not seen Mr. Rockefeller's August 3 letter and I had the impression that he was wondering if Mr. Rockefeller might be planning to participate in tomorrow's luncheon which I understand Mr. Drohan is hosting. He mentioned "some of the top officers at the bank -- including the President" would be attending but otherwise seemed vague about whom he expected to be present.

I told him that I had a copy of Mr. Rockefeller's August 3 letter indicating he planned to be away most of August. In the interim, I learned that Mr. Rockefeller is hosting a luncheon at the same time for the President of Guinea. After speaking with Rick Salomon, I called your office to be sure Mr. Butcher was aware of all the background in the event any aspect of Mr. Rockefeller's relationship with Mr. Drohan came up for discussion at lunch.

Mr. Salomon indicated that the fact that Mr. Rockefeller is indeed grateful for Mr. Drohan's interest in the University and his initiative in organizing the Bay Area luncheon might be mentioned at an appropriate time. He also noted that it is of course, understood that this relationship should not influence the bank's existing contacts with Mr. Drohan or Foremost-McKesson.

Should you have any questions and need any additional information, please don't hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Garvey
